

What Will You Miss About U.M.C. In The Future Years?

"The smell of the barns during spring melt."

"Smelly dorm rooms from . . . ?"

"Clipping pigs teeth."

"Shoveling 'apples.'"

"The personal attention the students received from the faculty and staff."

"Provost Stan and his warm, friendly welcome and the enthusiasm he radiates to everyone he encounters. He makes me proud to have received my education from this fine institution. Yes, you can say I have a love for U.M.C. and its people."

"The parties at 201 West 2nd St. basement Apt."

"Bede Lounge and Trojan Inn, and Food Service, USA."

"Parties in Lee Hall #8, and for sure not the food."

"Parking Lot A."

"I will miss looking at all the good looking features at U.M.C. (girls)."

"I will miss the freezing cold winters, the hot humid fall, the instructors, classmates and friends. I will miss my coaches that drove us to victory after many hours of sweat and practice. I will miss the leisure time, the studying, the parties, and most of all I will miss U.M.C. itself; the buildings, the mall, the trees. It is a beautiful place, a place to learn, and a wonderful place to start our lives."

"Jumping out of Skyberg."

"Man watching."

"The time in Food Service, USA."

"8:00 class."

"All the friendly people."

"Skyberg A-2 of '82-'83."

"The crew and mug night at Baloney Bills."

"Happy Hour at the NoLo (and the barn boys)."

"Jeannie at the boat (now at the Diamonds)."

"Provost Stan, 'the man' Sahlstroms' 'Good morning.'"

"Air-mail."

"ECON."

"Music on the campus."

"The parties."

"The green house on the corner and the girls in it."

"Cathy Demers, Barb Trokel, Gary Vizenor, Tammy Lafreniere, and the good times."

"Dave Hoff, Mark Larson, Gary Vizenor, Barb Troxel, Larry Huus, Bill Paradise."

"Lori, Patty, Diane, Kathy and Dina — I love you guys."

"Checking the 'empty mailboxes.'"
